

Combined studies (vocational training and studies)

A combined study programme is designed in such a way that students complete a commercial, industrial or business vocational training parallel to their studies at Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg. You can find out on the websites of the respective degree programmes or faculties which degree programmes offer this type of combined study.

If you are interested in a combined study programme, you should generally apply for a training place in the company as well as for a regular study place at Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg.

Please be sure to inform the Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg in your application for admission that you are concluding or have concluded a training contract in a combined study programme (please enclose proof). The admissions office of the Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg is usually not informed by the companies that you are a participant in the joint model.

Please apply for a place at <https://www.tha.de/en/Application>. You will take part in the selection procedure as usual in accordance with the allocation rules (NC procedure). If you are not allocated a place, you can be admitted within the special quota.

If you have received a notification of admission from the Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg and cannot take up this place of study due to a preceding one-year training phase in the company, you will be considered as a pre-admitted student in the following year.

The prerequisite is that the applicants

1. have commenced vocational training and
2. were or will be admitted to this course of study at the beginning of or during this vocational training.

Notes on preferential admission:

If you start your vocational training in 2024, you should already apply from 02 May - 15 July 2024 for a place at university. If you receive a place at university, you will not be able to take up the place, but you will be entitled to preferential admission in the following year 2025. Preferential admission only takes place at the university from which you have received a letter of admission.

In order to realise your entitlement to preferential admission, you must reapply to Technical University of Applied Sciences Augsburg from 02 May - 15 July 2025 with all documents in due time and form. This application must also be accompanied by proof of participation in the network model from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce or Chamber of Crafts and the previous letter of admission. Please keep this carefully!
